

Mr. Pedro Castro Garino
President of ASAPRA

Mr. Pedro Castro is President of ASAPRA since November 2017.

He has been President of the Association of Customs Brokers of Uruguay – ADAU, from June 2011 to the same month of 2017. Before, he was a Director of ADAU from 1996 to 1999 and was a member of several Special Commissions of the organization.

Founder and General Director of the firm Pedro Castro y Asociados.

Mr. Pedro Castro has worked in the area of foreign trade for more than 45 years. He is an accredited Professional Customs Broker since 1981 and a member of ADAU since then.

He is active in academic and international representation activities linked to the profession, including participation in ASAPRA's Congresses and Assemblies and the Sessions of the Council of the World Customs Organization (WCO). He is a lecturer and moderator in international seminars related to ASAPRA's Associates.